

2012 Smoke Taint Symposium

Wednesday 20 June 2012

10:00 am - 5:00 pm

Fig Room, Ground Floor
Mercure Melbourne Treasury Gardens,
13 Spring Street,
Melbourne, VIC, 3000

Time	Presentation	Presenter
9:30	Morning Tea on arrival
10:00	Welcome, introductions and aims for the day	Dr Mark Krstic Victorian Node Manager & MC for day, AWRI, Melbourne, VIC
10:05	Formal opening of the 2012 Smoke Taint Symposium	Chair, Wine Victoria
10:10	The Centre of Expertise in Smoke Taint Research – aims and outcomes	Dr Mark Downey DPI Victoria, Centre Expertise in Smoke Taint Research, Mildura, VIC
10:35	The effects of pyrolysis fuel types and conditions on the range of chemical markers observed in smoke tainted grapes and wine	Mr David Kelly Dept of Environment & Agriculture, Curtin University, WA
11:00	Understanding how smoke compounds make it into the fruit and wine	Dr Nicole Cain DPI Victoria, Centre Expertise in Smoke Taint Research, Mildura, VIC
11:20	Advances in analytical procedures to assess the likelihood of smoke taint compounds ending up in final wine	Dr Markus Herderich AWRI, Adelaide, SA
11:45	Impact of smoke exposure on different grape varieties	Dr Renata Ristic The University of Adelaide, Adelaide, SA
12:10	Development of smoke taint risk management tools for use by vignerons and land managers to reduce the impact of controlled burns on grapes and wine	Mr Glynn Ward Department of Agriculture and Food Western Australia, Perth, WA
12:35	Demonstration of HIN Mapper iPad 'app'	Mr Ricky James DPI Victoria, Centre Expertise in Smoke Taint Research, Rutherglen, VIC
12:45	Panel Q&A session
12:55	Lunch (including Poster and iPad 'app' viewing)

The Australian Wine
Research Institute

Department of
Primary Industries

Department of Agriculture and Food

Time	Presentation	Presenter
1:40	Vegetative and reproductive recovery of grapevines following fire damage	Dr Kerry Wilkinson School of Agriculture, Food & Wine, The University of Adelaide, SA
2:05	Understanding the chemical and sensorial basis of bushfire smoke flavour in affected wines	Dr Christine Mayr AWRI, Adelaide, SA
2:30	Responding to an industry smoke taint crisis	Mr Con Simos, AWRI, Adelaide, SA
2:55	Novel methods for the amelioration of smoke tainted wine	Dr Kerry Wilkinson School of Agriculture, Food & Wine, The University of Adelaide, SA
3:20	Improving communication between public land managers and wine industry - a case study	Mr Duncan Pendrigh Director – Planned Burning, DSE, Melbourne, VIC
3:45	Panel Q&A session & general discussion
3:55	Wrap up and close of Smoke Taint Symposium	Dr Mark Krstic AWRI, Melbourne, VIC
4:00	Official Launch of AWRI Victorian Node	Chair, Wine Victoria; DPI Victoria representative; GWRDC representative and an AWRI representative
4:10-5:00	Launch drinks and nibbles	Open to all

Please note: This event is open to all within the Australian wine industry, the research community and all those involved with controlled burn activities within public land management agencies such as DSE.

Registration is free, please just RSVP to Mark Krstic via email (mark.krstic@awri.com.au) by Friday 15 June 2012 for catering purposes. Also, please let me know if you require parking on the day, as we are organising a special rate with car park close to the venue. This parking fee, at the designated car park, will be refunded for those Australian wine industry members who are able to attend this event.

Mercure Melbourne
Treasury Gardens

The Australian Wine
Research Institute

Department of
Primary Industries

Department of Agriculture and Food

