

YARRA VALLEY SEMINAR

Smoke taint: learnings from 2020 and preparing for 2021

Tuesday, 27 October 2020

10:00 am – 11:30 am

Time	Agenda	Presenter
10:00 – 10:15	Setting the scene; regional overview	Franco D'Anna, Wine Yarra Valley
10:15 – 10:30	Learnings from 2020 <ul style="list-style-type: none">Progress on development of the early warning system	Ian Porter, La Trobe University
10:30 – 10:40	Learnings from 2020 from the AWRI <ul style="list-style-type: none">Regional snapshotSummary of vintage 2020 regional feedback as provided to the AWRI	Geoff Cowey, AWRI
10:40 – 10:50	<ul style="list-style-type: none">A summary of the early season trials undertaken in the Adelaide Hills and Hunter Valley	Markus Herderich, AWRI
10:50 – 11:05	Winemaking mitigation strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none">The latest in carbon and enzyme researchResults from winemaking trials with Victorian producers	Julie Culbert, AWRI
11:05 – 11:20	Preparing for vintage 2021 <ul style="list-style-type: none">Decision workflow<ul style="list-style-type: none">Micro-fermentsSensory assessment	Con Simos, AWRI
11:20 – 11:30	Q&A

Booking is essential

Please register here.

For more information, please contact AWRI Events

Ph. 08 8313 6600 | Email: events@awri.com.au